Matt McMahon Begins 3rd Season

Coach Matt McMahon begins his third season at LSU with a foundation now established and a postseason appearance under his belt after a 9-9 conference record last year which included back-to-back wins over naitonally-ranked SEC teams.

2001 and Beyond

In the "Time Marches On" category, this will mark the second straight year that every player on the LSU basketball team was born in the year 2000 or later.

In fact, only 5th year senior Jordan Sears, junior college transfer Noah Boyde and 5th year senior Trace Young are the only players born in the year 2001.

Louisiana Ties

While only two players on the roster hail originally from Louisiana, there are deep roots established with the two players, and in one case, the Tigers have brought one player back home.

Corey Chest, who redshirted a year ago, finished his high school career in 2023 at Link Academy in Branson, Missouri (capturing a national title in the process). But he cut his teeth in the sport in his home town of New Orleans where he played at McMain High, which reached the state title game in 2021 and 2022.

Cam Carter, who hails from Donaldsonville, returns to Louisiana after a year at Mississippi State (2022) and two seasons at Kansas State (2023, 2024).

Carter started all 34 games a year ago, averaging 14.6 points, 2.6 assists and 35.5 minutes per game (3rd in the Big 12).

Familiar Faces

Despite what is the constant change in the sport of college basketball in this day and time, LSU showed again the ability to keep some important pieces together for the 2024-25 season.

Two players who have been with Coach McMahon since the beginning are Jalen Reed and Tyrell Ward. Both enter their junior seasons after sophomore seasons that showed how much work they did in the player development aspect of the program.

Reed has continued to mature, has put on 15 pounds of muscle working with strength coach Mike Chatman and looks to play a more important role in the team rotation in 2024-25, after significantly strong strides in 2023-24.

Ward helped key back-to-back wins in the final seconds over nationally-ranked teams in Feb. 2024 that helped LSU to its 9-9 SEC mark. He hit a team high 52 three-pointers a year ago.

Also, looking to make that jump from freshman to sophomore season is point guard Mike Williams III. Williams showed great poise and ability in starting 22 games and averaging 7.2 points and 1.2 assists as a freshman.

Derek Fountain, a 5th year senior is also in his third season with the program and appears to be finally healthy after a few minor things a season ago. He hopes to return to his first year as a Tiger when he averaged eight points and was a force inside for LSU.

Daimion Collins should also be a bigger prescense after having his 2023-24 season shut down early by a shoulder injury that needed surgery. He's been cleared since the end of August and has been working hard to be a factor for this team.

New Faces

Coach McMahon and this staff has continued to make recruiting young talent a part of their program. WIth that in mind, the Tigers have brought in three top 66 four-star recruits that could all play a role in 2024-25.

Vyctorius Miller played at Compass Prep in Arizona the last two seasons, while Curtis Givens III was a member of the national championship team at Montverde. Robert Miller comes to LSU after a strong career at Pasadena Memorial in Houston,

Also joining the team was junior college signee Noah Boyde from McCook Community College (Neb.)

The Tigers also answered needs in the transfer portal. We've already mentioned Cam Carter and joining him will be Dji Bailey from Richmond and Jordan Sears from UT Martin.

Bailey won the Chris Daniels Award last season, given to the Atlantic 10's Most Improved Player. He averaged 10.2 points and 2.2 assists per game.

Sears was a finalist for the Lou Henson National POY (Collegeinsider.com) and a two-year OVC first-team selection. He averaged 21.6 points, ninth in D1. He is the only active DI player to get at least 650 points, 140 rebounds, 140 assists and 75 three-pointers in 2023-24.

The Coaching Staff

Some new and somewhat familiar faces joined Casey Long, Tim Kaine and Ronrico White on the on-floor coaching staff for this season.

David Patrick, who has head coaching experience at two schools and was on the staff for two Olympic Games with team Australia, returns to LSU as Associate Head Coach. Patrick was at LSU previously from 2012-16.

Jalen Courtney-Williams played three seasons at LSU (2010-13) and returned to LSU this season as Assistant Coach after three highly successful years at Creighton.

New this year is strength coach Mike Chatman, who has done a great job since joining the staff from Stanford working on the players weight room workouts, development and recovery.

Former LSU player and staff member Tasmin Mitchell continues with the Tigers in the 2023-24 season as Special Assistant to the Head Coach. This is the eighth season for Mitchell on the LSU staff. Also back as Director of Recruiting is veteran coach Jeff Moore.

Non-Conference Schedule

LSU has some important games on its non-conference schedule as it looks to get off to a better start on the season in November and December.

LSU and Kanas State will meet for the third straight year, this time in Manahattan, Kansas, before the Tigers go to White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia for The Greenbrier Tipoff at the famed resort. LSU will face Pittsburgh and either Wisconsin or UCF in the two games there, Nov. 22 and 24.

LSU will host an SEC/ACC Challenge game on Dec. 2 against Florida State and begins a neutral site series against SMU in the Compete For Cause Classic in Frisco, Texas in mid-Decemer. The teams will meet in late 2025 in the Smoothie King Center in New Orleans.

The Pro Ranks

Seven former Tigers opened the 2024-25 season on NBA teams.

Returning to the Minnesota Timberwolves is NBA Sixth Man of the Year, Naz Reid.

Also on rosters is veteran NBA player Garrett Temple (Toronto); Cam Thomas, Trendon Watford and Ben Simmons (Brooklyn); Tari Easpn (Houston); and Duop Reath (Portland).

Another 10 players are playing on rosters in leagues around the world.

In all, 51 former LSU players have played at least one regular season NBA game (or an ABA franchise that no longer exists).

MATT MCMAHON

LSU HEAD BASKETBALL COACH

LSU Men's Basketball Head Coach Matt McMahon has five simple core values that define him and his basketball program at LSU:

Hard work, unselfishness, toughness, accountability and joy.

Those were some of the first words he said when he stepped to the podium for the first time as the 25th LSU men's basketball head coach on March 22, 2022.

Now after two seasons as head coach at LSU and the improvement shown by the team from year one to year two, the foundation has been laid for further improvement by the Tigers and through the second season in 2023-24, all five of those core values were seen time and time again.

Through long hours of work in the classroom, in the video room, and practice, the hard work and unselfishness was seen. The toughness and accountability were there when times got tough; and, yes, when LSU defeated back-to-back nationally-ranked teams in the final seconds, there was that joy that all LSU fans could enjoy.

The team learned and played under those five principles and laid a foundation for the LSU Basketball program to move forward on in 2024-25.

As the LSU Basketball program under Coach McMahon enters its third season, the team will mix three top 65 high school recruits, along with a handful of transfers into the mix with another step in the progress of the McMahon program – player development.

This past season, as LSU continued to improve, including a seven-win rise in the Southeastern Conference, finishing with a 9-9 record and a post-season tournament appearance in the NIT, the culture of the LSU program and the success that it can have in the future were on full display.

The culture and success were on display during the seven years at Murray State University where Coach McMahon led the Racers to a record of 154-67, a .697 winning percentage. He led Murray State to 93 OVC regular-season wins, winning 75 percent of league games.

He has also coached multiple all-Americans and all-league players such as Ja Morant who was named NBA Rookie of the Year in 2020.

The Racers won regular season league titles in 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2022 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2018, 2019 and 2022.

Since the native of Oak Ridge, Tennessee, became the third-youngest rookie among D1 coaches in 2015, McMahon has continued a steady move forward with a reputation for developing talent both as an assistant and head coach. He has become known nationally as an excellent recruiter and he is among the best in the nation in the area of player development and game planning.

In his final season at Murray State in 2021-22, McMahon coached OVC Player of the Year KJ Williams and two other recipients of first-team honors (Tevin Brown, Justice Hill). In addition, McMahon was named the league's Coach of the Year.

McMahon's Racers, in 2021-22, were just the sixth team in league history to go undefeated and the first to do it in an 18-game conference schedule. Murray State then won the two league tournament games to advance to the NCAA Tournament where, as a No. 7 seed, the Racers defeated San Francisco to advance to the round of 32.

The 2021-22 team was one of seven teams to win 30 or more games and led the nation in win percentage at 91.2 percent (31-3). The Racers were ranked No. 20 in the final AP poll and No. 22 in the Coaches Poll.

Coach McMahon led the Racers to three-straight OVC championships (2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20) and two consecutive OVC Tournament titles (2017-18, 2018-19).

Prior to being named head coach, he was a key part of Coach Steve Prohm's staff as assistant at Murray State as the Racers won a pair of Ohio Valley Conference championships, a CollegeInsider.com Tournament championship and an appearance in the NIT.

PRIOR TO MURRAY STATE

Coach McMahon has had success in college basketball since his days as a player at Appalachian State.

Known as an excellent shooter and tough competitor, he played on three Southern Conference regular season title teams in 1998, 1999 and 2000. He earned All-Tournament honors in 1999.

He played in 117 career games under coach Buzz Peterson and made 135 three-pointers, graduating in 2000 with a bachelor's in marketing.

His coaching career began immediately at Appalachian State as assistant under Houston Fancher in 2000-01. He would rejoin Peterson's staff as a graduate assistant coach at Tennessee before returning to ASU in 2002 as assistant and later associate head coach, where he stayed until the end of the 2009-10 season. A year at UNC Wilmington (2010-11) as assistant coach set the stage for his journey to Murray State.

Like his time at Murray State, McMahon coached some outstanding talent in the early stages of his coaching career, including Southern Conference POY Donald Sims as well as all-league picks Jeremy Clayton and D.J. Thompson.

Coach McMahon and his wife Mary, a former standout for the Furman women's basketball team, have three children – Maris, Mason and Mabry.

2025 SEC Tournament

The Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournament continues its extended long run in Nashiville once again in March of 2025..

The tournament is sheduled to be in the city of Nashville and the Bridgestone Arena well into the 2030s.

The winner of the 15-game tournament receives the SEC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The tournament seeds are determined by the 18-game conference schedule during the regular season. Teams are seeded 1-16 based on their regular season conference finish.

Atlanta served as host of the inaugural SEC Tournament played following the 1932-33 season and did so again after the 1933-34 season. The event was held every year through 1952, with the exception of 1935. After a 26-year layoff (1953-78), the tournament was renewed in 1979. The 2024 tournament will be the 65th in league history and the 46th since the renewal.

It will be the 14th time that the city has served as the host of the SEC Tournament. The building has seen a champion crowned on 11 occasions in 2001, 2006, 2010, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2021, 2023 and 2024.. The 2020 Tournament was halted after one day because of the nationwide pandemic that stopped all sports.

Also the home of the NHL's Nashville Predators, Bridgestone Arena has the distinction of being one of the busiest venues in the United States over the past decade and a half, hosting more than 18 million guests during that time. Seating capacity is approximately 19,395 for basketball games.

The event has helped set the stage for SEC teams in the NCAA Tournament, as 24 of the tournament champions since the tournament resumed in 1979 have advanced to at least the Sweet 16. Three of the last 14 SEC Tournament champions have gone on to win the national championship.

Kentucky leads the league with 31 SEC Tournament titles. Alabama is second with eight, while Tennessee is third wtih five and Florida has won four. Mississippi State and Auburn have three championship trophies while Georgia, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt have two. Arkansas, LSU and former league member Georgia Tech have each won one SEC Tournament championship.

Bob Pettit

Bob Pettit once said of himself as a youngster who would grow up to be a collegiate All-American and a force in the National Basketball Association:

"The greatest thing that ever happened to me is that when I first picked up a basketball I was terrible. If things come naturally, you might not bother to work at improving them, and you can fall short of your potential."

Being terrible meant being gangly and not very good. He was tall, but he wasn't able to yet make the moves that made him a future star. He was the last man on the junior varsity his freshman year at Baton Rouge High. As a sophomore, he was cut from the varsity. But because of that, he took his interest in basketball to heart and began to work hour-after-hour in back of the house in Baton Rouge.

As a 6-4 junior, he began to be noticed. His skills were still raw and undeveloped, but his size made him worth a second glance. He grew to 6-7 as a junior, and BRHS won the state championship.

Pettit once wrote: "Teammates. . .were miles ahead of me in all-around ability, but college scouts gave me the big rush act because I was six-seven by then. Fifteen schools offered me the standard scholarship."

LSU fans loved what they saw in Pettit, and he didn't disappoint. Here was a three-time First-Team All-SEC member who led his Tigers to a second place finish in 1952, conference titles in 1953 and 1954 and the NCAA Final Four in 1953.

He led the league in scoring all three years, with the highest averages seen to date in the league: 25.5 points in 1952, 24.9 in 1953 and 31.4 points per game in 1954. At the same time, he was averaging 13.1 (1952), 13.9 (1953) and an LSU best 17.3 (1954) rebounds per game. Only Pete Maravich and Chris Jackson would also break the 30-point average barrier at LSU.

Coach Cliff Wells of Tulane summed up Bob Pettit's days at LSU, "He's the best big man in college basketball today, and I've seen them all." LSU Coach Harry Rabenhorst called him, "the greatest LSU player since Sparky Wade."

He was a first round draft choice in 1954 of the then Milwaukee Hawks. Pettit played his entire 11-year career with the Hawks, moving with the club to St. Louis in 1955. He wrote nearly every record in the Hawks' record book and was a four-time MVP of the annual NBA All-Star game. He led the Hawks to the 1958 NBA Championship and five NBA Finals.

In 1954, his number 50 was retired at LSU, the first number in any sport retired in Tiger Town. In 1964, he became the first NBA player to exceed the 20,000-points scored barrier. In 1970, he was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame and in 2006 to the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame.

"Those were great years at LSU," Pettit once said. "They were such great years. I couldn't have asked for anything better than my four years at LSU. I received my degree in Business, played the sport I loved and made so many friends."

In 2009, he was honored again by the school he loved and continues to support as he was named one of the members of LSU's "All-Century Team."

Pettit still lives in South Louisiana and can be seen several times a season watching his Tigers play at the Maravich Center. He was back for a special weekend in 2013, honoring the 60th anniversary of the LSU 1953 NCAA Final Four team.

In February 2016, Pettit and his family unveiled a statue in front of the LSU Practice Facility at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center forever honoring his great basketball accomplishments.

Pete Maravich

Pete Maravich was billed as the one who would put Louisiana basketball on the map from the first day he joined his father Press at LSU. People weren't disappointed. His freshman year they packed the old John M. Parker Agricultural Center (known as the "Cow Palace") to watch the freshman team and then left quickly as the varsity Tigers won just three games in 1967.

By Pete's senior year, the Tigers would improve to 20-8 and wind up in New York City at the National Invitation Tournament, a fitting place for the big-city Maravich Show to close its LSU run.

To those who never saw him play live, but only watched what few games were on television or listened on radio, the Maravich story at LSU may seem larger than life. But his skills were perfected through hours and hours of repetitious drills at all hours of the day and night and in all kinds of settings.

Maravich ended up receiving the richest contract ever offered a college player at the time to sign with the Atlanta Hawks ($1.9 million), but during his 10-year career with the Hawks, the New Orleans and Utah Jazz and the Boston Celtics, his dream of a championship wasn't fulfilled. Pete was finding that life wasn't very fulfilling either.

There were hard times when he went in search of something to make his life complete. He had money, he had fame. He didn't have real happiness. But in 1982, Pistol Pete accepted Jesus Christ.

He began enjoying life, enjoying times with his wife and children. Television executives were discovering his knowledge of the game again as a color commentator and best of all for LSU fans, a rift that grew between star and college had diminished and was forgotten.

But the Pistol's life suddenly ended on Jan. 5, 1988, just over a month after appearing at the Assembly Center for an emotional ceremony to formally present a portrait of Pete and his father to him.

Maravich's Records and Highlights

- All-Time NCAA Career Scoring Leader with 3,667 points, an average of 44.2 points for 83 games.
- First, fourth and fifth for points in single season. Averaged 44.5 points in 1970, 44.2 points in 1969, 43.8 points in 1968.
- 69 points vs. Alabama, Feb. 7, 1970.
- Led LSU to the NIT semis in 1970, its first postseason appearance in 16 years.
- Unanimous first-team All-American in 1968, 1969, 1970.
- Naismith Award winner in 1970.
- Member of the NBA Hall of Fame after 10-year career with Atlanta Hawks, New Orleans and Utah Jazz and Boston Celtics.

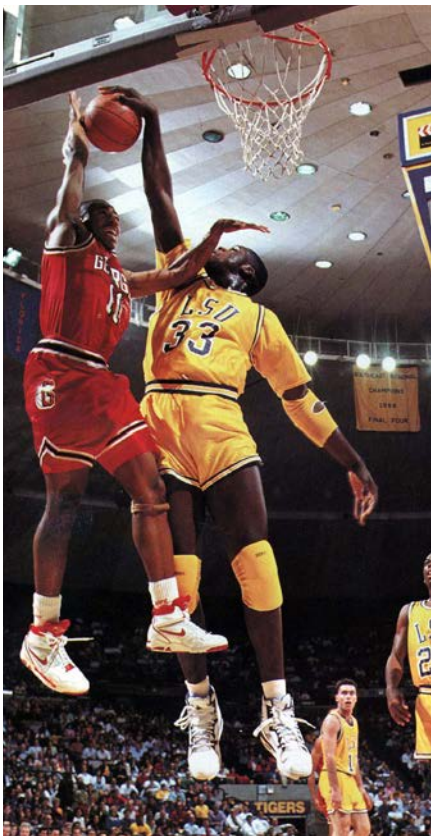
Shaquille O'Neal



Shaquille O'Neal brought LSU to new heights during his three years with the Tigers, and the 7-1 center became a national celebrity in the days of saturation coverage of basketball by the media.

But he earned his celebrity status with great play and an intimidation factor that made him the envy of coaches throughout the country.

After leaving LSU in April 1992, he was the number one pick of the National Basketball Association by the Orlando Magic and signed a multi-year contract estimated at over $40 million.

In 1996, as a free agent, he signed with the Los Angeles Lakers. Following the 2004 season, O'Neal was traded to the Miami Heat. He also played in Phoenix, Cleveland and Boston before retiring after the 2011 season.

He presently serves as a studio analyst for TNT Sports.

O'Neal's Records and Highlights

- Two-time consensus Southeastern Conference Player of the Year and first-team All-American, 1991-1992. Most Valuable Player on SEC Coaches Defensive Team, 1991-1992.
- National Player of the Year as chosen by the Associated Press (Rupp Award), United Press International, L. A. Gear and Sports Illustrated, 1991. Winner of the Tanqueray World Amateur Athlete of the Year Award, 1991. Southeastern Conference Athlete of the Year, 1991-1992. National Player of the Year as chosen by L. A. Gear, 1992 and runner-up for the Naismith Award and the John Wooden Award, 1992.
- Set SEC record for most blocks in a season three consecutive years (115-1990, 140-1991, 157-1992). Set SEC record for career blocks with 412. Blocked five or more shots in a game 45 times in 90 career games.
- Set SEC single game record with 12 blocks against Loyola Marymount in Feb. 1990. Blocked 11 shots against Brigham Young in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, setting a then-tournament standard for a single game, 1992.
- Averaged a national sophomore record 5.0 blocked shots a game, 1991. National leader in blocked shots (5.2 average), 1992.
- National leader in rebounding (14.7 average), 1991. Second nationally in rebounding (14.0 average), 1992.
- First player to lead the Southeastern Conference in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage and blocked shots in the same season, 1991. Led SEC in rebounding, field goal percentage, blocked shots and second in scoring, 1992. First player to lead the SEC in rebounding three straight seasons since Charles Barkley of Auburn, 1982-84.
- Finished with 1,217 rebounds, seventh all-time in the Southeastern Conference, second all-time at LSU.
- Finished with 1,941 points, fourth all-time at LSU behind only Pete Maravich (3,667-1967-70), Durand Macklin (2,080-1976-78; 79-81) and Howard Carter (1,942-1979-83).
- Career field goal percentage of 61.0 percent is second all-time at LSU and in the SEC (minimum 1,000 attempts).
- Had six career triple-doubles (points, rebounds and blocks in same game).
- Was the third LSU player (Pete Maravich and Chris Jackson) to have at least two 700-plus point seasons at LSU.
- Was the first LSU player to record back-to-back 400-plus rebound seasons.

Durand "Rudy" Macklin

Durand "Rudy" Macklin, whose recruitment to LSU marked the beginning of the Tigers rise to the top of college basketball under Dale Brown, received his long overdue recognition as his jersey was retired to the rafters of the Pete Maravich Assembly Center during the 2009-10 season.

Macklin came to LSU from Louisville, Ky., surprising many by leaving his home state to play for Coach Brown and a program that was still looking for its true direction.

But ever since his first game at LSU, Macklin showed he would be the leader and leave a mark on the program that is still talked about to this day.

In that first game, he set a school rebounding record that no one has come close to, pulling down 32 boards in a win against Tulane.

After his magnificent LSU career, he became the school's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 rebounds (a 10.4 rebounds per game average). That figure remains on top of the school chart. He also became the second leading scorer all-time at LSU behind Pete Maravich (2,080 points, 16.9 points per game average).

He is just the second player to score 2,000 points at LSU, and still to this day remains in the top 20 in league scoring totals.

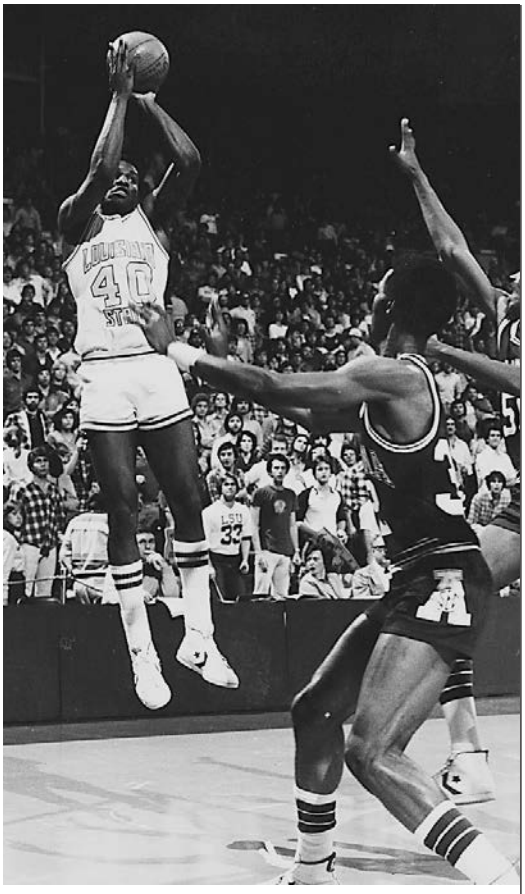
Much of his success and his two All-American seasons in 1980 and 1981 were after returning from a serious knee injury that forced him to miss all but two games of the 1978-79 season.

In 1980, he averaged 17.6 points per game as the Tigers just missed winning the league title in a dramatic last-game overtime loss to Kentucky only to come back a week later and win the school's only SEC title. The Tigers that year advanced to the Elite 8 before losing to Louisville.

In 1981, he was also named Southeastern Conference Player of the Year and led the Tigers to their first NCAA Final Four since 1953. He beat out a star-studded cast of players which included Georgia's Dominique Wilkins, Kentucky's Sam Bowie and other future NBA players such as Jeff Malone of Mississippi State, Dale Ellis of Tennessee, Eddie Phillips of Alabama and teammate Howard Carter.

In Macklin's four years, LSU had records of 18-9, 23-6, 26-6 and 31-5. The Tigers won one SEC title, one SEC Tournament championship, advanced to the Elite 8 and the Final Four during the Macklin days.

One writer wrote of Macklin, "Macklin's aggressiveness has never been questioned in the Southeastern Conference. If they gave an award for the hardest worker, Macklin would have been the consensus choice of his peers, who marvel at how much effort he puts into the game."



Today, Macklin is still in Baton Rouge, heading the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports for over a decade and now serving as Director of the Office of Minority Health.

"Rudy is far more than a basketball player," Brown said. "He is a magnificent human being that contributes to society daily. He is a superb role model and an outstanding gentleman."

"We didn't win (the NCAA title) but LSU was pretty far down when I came here and pretty near the top when I left. I kind of feel like we accomplished our mission."

In 2000, he was honored as the school's Living Legend at the SEC Basketball Tournament. In 2005 he was elected to the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and in 2009 he was named a member of LSU's All-Century team.

Mahmoud Abdul-Rauf

The LSU Athletic Hall of Fame Election Board in July 2019 unanimously approved the jersey retirement of LSU men's basketball All-American Mahmoud Abdul-Rauf.

The ceremony took place in 2020 with many former teammates and Coach Dale Brown looking on.

The No. 35 worn by Abdul-Rauf, who was known as Chris Jackson during his LSU playing career as the Tigers' point guard, joined the No. 50 worn by Bob Pettit, the No. 23 worn by Pete Maravich, the No. 40 worn by Rudy Macklin and the No. 33 worn by Shaquille O'Neal as retired jerseys in the LSU men's basketball program.

Abdul-Rauf, a native of Gulfport, Miss., became the 14th LSU athlete or coach to have his/her jersey retired, joining Pettit, Maravich, Macklin and O'Neal; football players Billy Cannon, Tommy Casanova and Jerry Stovall; women's basketball players Seimone Augustus and Sylvia Fowles; baseball coach Skip Bertman and baseball players Ben McDonald, Eddy Furniss and Todd Walker.

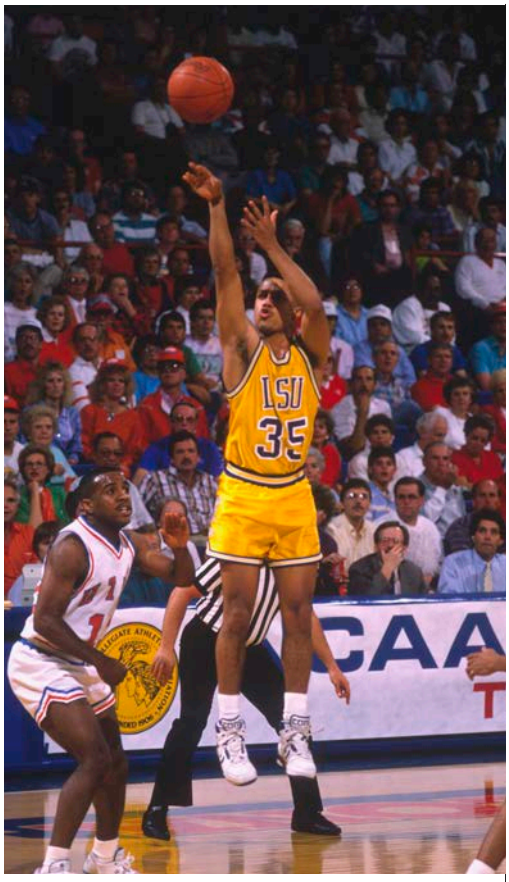
"By a unanimous decision, Mahmoud now joins one of the most elite groups in college basketball - the five men's basketball players whose jerseys LSU has retired," said LSU Director of Athletics Scott Woodward. "He's one of the greatest of all time at LSU and incredibly deserving of this honor."

Abdul-Rauf was named a first-team All-American in 1989 and 1990, becoming in 1989 just the second freshman to receive first-team All-America recognition from the Associated Press. He averaged 30.2 points per game during the 1988-89 season, and he is still the only freshman in college basketball history to average over 30 points per game.

Abdul-Rauf was a two-time consensus SEC Player of the Year, and he scored in double figures in 63 of his 64 games at LSU, including over 20 points 52 times, over 30 points 28 times, over 40 points 11 times and over 50 points four times.

At the end of his collegiate career, he held the LSU all-time record for most three-point field goals made (172), and he still holds the school single-season mark for highest free-throw percentage (91 percent).

In two years he scored 1,854 points, eighth all-time at LSU in career scoring and the most points scored by any player who played just two seasons at LSU. He had 232 assists and 107 steals, averaging 3.6 assists in 64 career games.



Abdul-Rauf was the third overall pick in the 1990 NBA Draft by the Denver Nuggets , and he played in the league for nine seasons with the Nuggets, the Sacramento Kings and the Vancouver Grizzlies. He twice led the NBA in free throw percentage, and he voted the league's Most Improved Player in 1993.

After his NBA career concluded in 2001, Abdul-Rauf continued to compete in multiple leagues around the world, and he currently plays in the BIG3 three-on-three professional basketball league that is headquartered in Los Angeles.

He played, 586 games in the NBA, averaging 14.6 points for his career and 3.5 assists per game.

Even as he passed age 50, Abdul-Rauf has continued to dazzel in the BIG3, leading his team to the title game in 2017 and 2021 and a third place finish in 2018 and 2019.

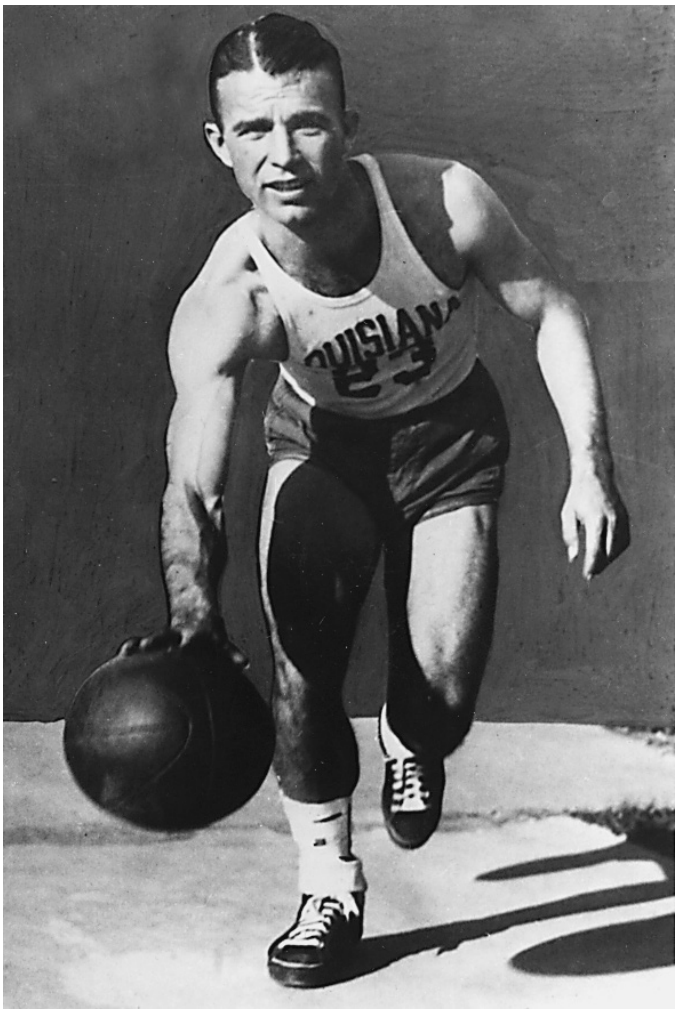
First-Team All-Americans



Malcolm "Sparky" Wade

Guard · 5-9 · Jena, La.
1935

LSU's first basketball All-American averaged 9.7 points per game in 1933 and 12.4 points per game in 1934 to lead the scoring category for the first two years of the Southeastern Conference.

He was named an All-American in 1935 while leading LSU to the mythical national championship, averaging 12.7 points per game.

A native of Jena, Wade is considered the greatest dribbler and backcourt star in LSU basketball history.

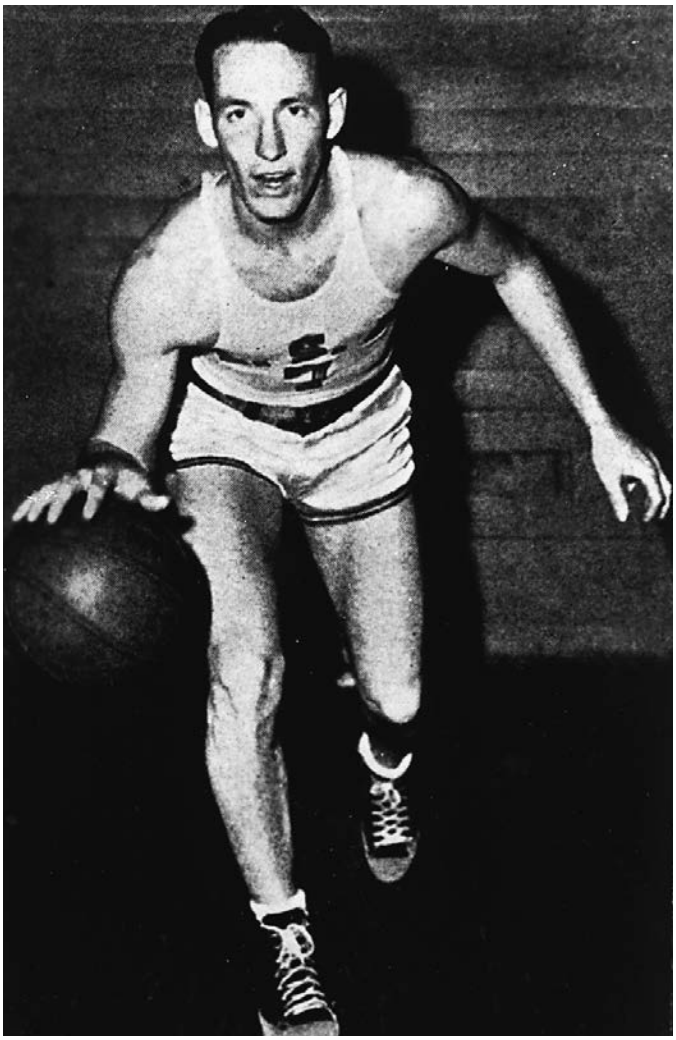
Before moving to LSU, he was named to the high school All-State team three times from 1928 to 1930. He was elected MVP of the national high school championship playoffs as a senior.

Former Baton Rouge Morning Advocate sports editor Bud Montet, remembers Wade in these words:

"He could do everything with a basketball but dunk it, and make it sing. If there was an extraordinary floor-leader in the South at that time, it had to be Wade."

The three-time All-SEC selection is also a member of the Louisiana Sports Writers and Louisiana Association of Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame.

He was the "Little Giant from Jena." You can't talk LSU basketball without mention of the school's first All-American and first showman who could pass, score and dribble with the best of his and many others era.



Bobby Lowther

Forward · 6-5 · Alexandria, La.
1946

Bobby Lowther officially was recognized as a first-team All-American in 1995 after a historian of the Helms Foundation confirmed that all members of the 1946 team had been upgraded to first-team status.

Lowther is the only two-sport All-America athlete in LSU's storied sports history. In 1946, he made the Helms Foundation basketball All-America squad and was a two-event All-American in track and field, finishing second at the NCAA Championships in the javelin and fourth in the pole vault.

The 6-5, 185-pound Alexandria native was also the triple jump champion at the 1946 National AAU Championships.

In basketball, he averaged 14.7 points per game as he also earned first-team All-SEC honors.

He was voted LSU's "Best All-Around Athlete" in 1947 in a field that also included such future professional stars as Y. A. Tittle, Alvin Dark and Joe Adcock.

Lowther is a member of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association Hall of Fame and was chosen to be the "Living Legend" honoree representing LSU at the 2005 Southeastern Conference basketball tournament in Atlanta.

First-Team All-Americans

Glen Davis

Forward · 6-8 · Baton Rouge, La.
2006

Glen Davis was at his best during the Tigers' 2006 season when he was named SEC Player of the Year and a First-Team All-American for the Wooden Award.

Davis starred as the Tigers captured the SEC regular-season championship with a 14-2 record and then went on to defeat four teams en route to the NCAA Final Four.

In the regional rounds, the Tiger magic and Davis' personality was on display to the nation as he helped lead LSU to upsets over No. 1-ranked Duke and an overtime win over No. 9 Texas that got LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 20 years.

Davis would earn all-region honors for his play in the NCAA Tournament in a year in which he led the SEC in both scoring (18.6) and rebounding (9.7). In 2007, in his junior season and despite injuries and intense pressure to perform, he again led the league in rebounding (10.2) and earned SEC First-Team honors. He was a second round pick of the NBA's Seattle Supersonics in the 2007 NBA Draft. He was traded to the Boston Celtics and became an NBA champion in his first year with the team.

Ben Simmons

Forward · 6-10 · Melbourne, Australia
2016

Simmons, in his one season at LSU, earned first-team SEC honors and All-America honors after averaging 19.2 ppg, 11.8 rpg and 4.79 apg. He was the consensus national Freshman of the Year, including winning the prestigious Wayman Tisdale Award. He was named LSU's ninth first-team A-A by the United States Basketball Writers Association.

Simmons was fourth in the SEC in points average, first in rebounds, third in field goal percentage (56.0%) and second in steals per game (1.97). His 199 made free throws was the most in a season since Pete Maravich and only Maravich and Bob Pettit made more in a year. He was the first player in the SEC in the top five in points-rebounds-assists. He finished the season with 23 double-doubles. He had six games of 20 points-15 rebounds and 5 assists and 17 games of 20 or more points.

Simmons was the school's second No. 1 pick in the NBA Draft, selected by the Philadelphia 76ers in June 2016.

This list represents basketball lettermen since LSU began basketball in 1908-09. The sports information office will appreciate your assistance in correcting any errors. Send all corrections or additions to Kent Lowe, LSU Communications, Baton Rouge, La., 70803.

Jersey Numbers

While some of the jersey numbers listed date back to the 1930s, records are somewhat incomplete through the 1950s. If you have changes, additions or corrections, please send them to Basketball SID Kent Lowe at clowe@lsu.edu for future updates.

Maravich CENTER

The Pete Maravich Assembly Center and LSU Basketball continues its legacy as the historic home of LSU basketball as the Tigers begin their 54th season in the multi-purpose venue which opened late in 1971 and hosted its first men's hoops game in Jan. 1972.

For a program that will play its 117th season, the former LSU Assembly Center is the venue that LSU has called its official home the longest following in the primary venues of the Huey Long Field House (now the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes) and the Ag Center on the opposite side of the campus, more commonly known to basketball fans as the "Cow Palace."

Even after all these years, the Maravich Center is still a great place for basketball on the portable wood playing surface.

The building took on a much needed new look for the 2017-18 season with the magnficent giant side and end video boards installed above the court that allows fans everywhere in the building to have a clear look at video and statistics.

There is also new modern light cabilities that offers some of the best light intensity that has been seen in the history of the building.

The building has seen constant changes since a three-year campaign began in 2005 to spruce up the building by the LSU Athletic Department.

In a year when the building would also become famous worldwide as the site of the largest triage unit in history after Hurricane Katrina, the athletic department was able to finish its renovation in time for the 2005-06 season and turn the building back into a showcase for LSU men's basketball.

An interactive concourse area depicting the history of the great players who have starred for LSU in the building, additional restrooms, new seats throughout the arena have taken the building to a new level. Now, the building features a practice facility for men and women along with a men's locker room complex helping the Assembly Center's appeal for players and fans for years to come.

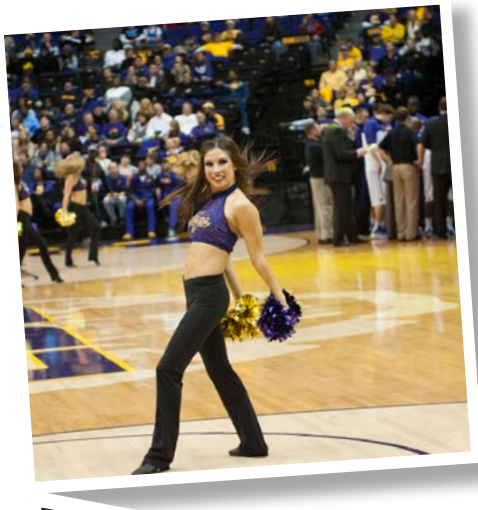
13,215
Seats 13,215 spectators after $5 million renovation to concourse and seating areas.



The Maravich Assembly Center is, like the other venues LSU basketball has bounced around in through its long history, unique in its own way.

Before moving across from Tiger Stadium (in the 1971-72 season), the Tigers set up shop in the Pavilion on the old LSU campus, the Huey Long Field House Gym Armory (now the Cox Communications Academic Center) and the John M. Parker Agricultural Center. LSU and SEC fans knew the latter as the "Cow Palace" as it served as the primary home for LSU basketball for four decades.

The building opened as the LSU Assembly Center, but during the summer of 1988, then Louisiana Governor Buddy Roemer signed legislation changing the official name of the building to the Pete Maravich Assembly Center in honor of the LSU star who had died tragically earlier that same year.

The Maravich Center is also the home for the LSU volleyball, gymnastics and women's basketball teams.

Practice FACILITY

The modern "workplace" of hoops is helping LSU basketball be a better team and a better program every day.

While the front of the building is dominated by the statues of Shaquille O'Neal, Bob Pettit, Pete Maravich and Seimone Augustus, it is what goes on inside the facility that is most important to the present and future of the LSU men's basketball program.

The chance to schedule practice when needed and the chance to get shots up or work on free throws any time is what makes this facility so important.

The facility features exact duplicate full-size gymnasiums. Each has two portable goals and four overhead retractable goals. Both courts are exact replicas of the PMAC competition court. Each gym features a scoreboard, video filming balcony and scorer's table with video and data connection.

Each gym spans 11,324 square feet and includes a regulation NCAA court in length with two regulation high school courts in the opposite direction.

Besides, the men's practice gymnasium, the facility is the primary work area for the basketball team with locker room, team lounge, training room, laundry facility, coaches locker room and storage areas. A recent renovation allowed for a much-needed basketball weight room in the facility.

The building also includes a central two-story lobby and staircase that ascends to the second level that has a room (The Legends Club) that can hold approximately 500 people for pre-game and post-game functions that leads into the Maravich Center concourse.

The lobby of the building showcases team displays and graphics, trophy cases (featuring the hardware of some of the great seasons) and memorabilia from the long history of LSU basketball.

Also design work is featured in the men's basketball halfways complete with vibrant pictures that lead players and coaches down to the dressing room rotunda and hallway to the arena floor.

The display and wall graphics were designed by ZE Design of Centerville, Ohio.

The facility was constructed by Guy Hopkins Construction of Baton Rouge based on designs by the firm of Tom Holden Architects of Baton Rouge in a unique joint venture with RDG Sports of Des Moines, Iowa.

The Legends Club connects to the Maravich Center concourse.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

It was a different time and a different era. But in 1935, in the days before the NCAA Tournament and the National Invitation Tournament sprung to life and created true March Madness, there was a national championship being claimed on the hardwood at LSU.

Led by the school's first All-American, Sparky Wade, and Buddy Blair, the Tigers of 10th year head coach Harry Rabenhorst pulled off a feat that many people feel is the first magical moment of LSU basketball. The Tigers, after a 13-1 regular season and a co-championship in the Southeastern Conference (the best team in the South), went to Atlantic City and played the best team in the East, the Pittsburgh Panthers, and won.

They called Wade the "Little Giant from Jena," and he could make a basketball do almost anything. He was 5-6 and a smaller preview of what would come in the late 1960s with Pete Maravich.

In 1935, the Tigers had a very favorable schedule that saw them play only three of 14 games away from the comfort of the Gym-Armory. The road games weren't bad trips at all, even in those days. One was to Houston to face Rice and the other two were to New Orleans to face Tulane.

The only loss of the season was that game against Rice, 56-47. Wade jokingly said in later years of that game, " The Rice Gym was an old auditorium with one chandelier with twenty-five watt bulbs. You could not see your feet or the color of uniforms. Even the floor was unwaxed."

But that was the only time the Tigers stumbled. Ironically, there was no SEC Tournament that particular year so LSU and Kentucky would not meet in basketball that season. Kentucky, undefeated in the conference, had not lost to LSU in a hoops contest and wouldn't until 26 years later.

So LSU and Pittsburgh were invited to the battle for the American Legion Bowl before some 5,000 at the Atlantic City Auditorium. LSU won by four, 41-37, but that tells so little of the story.

It was April 13, 1935. Doc Carlson's Panthers were 18-5 on the season. The Tigers started out very, very slow at a time when scoring points could be easily at a premium. The Tigers trailed 18-4 and still were down by nine, 26-17, at the half.

Gradually LSU rallied back. Buddy Blair made a long shot to give LSU a 35-33 lead. He then followed it with the next six points for the Tigers. Pittsburgh outscored LSU 17-16 in field goals, but LSU had a 9-3 advantage from the free throw line.

Blair led all scorers with 20 points, Shongaloo Lindsey added eight, Sparky Wade five, Jack Harris four and Arnold Bryan and Ben Journeay two apiece. While Wade's point total was down, his ball handling and court presence meant much to LSU's win.

The Advocate trumpeted the news the next day: "Louisiana State University, power in the Southeastern Conference, came from far behind tonight to defeat the University of Pittsburgh, Eastern Conference champion, 41-37, in their intersectional basketball game."

"The Bayou Tigers from Baton Rouge, trailing 26-17 at the half, smothered Pittsburgh in the second half with their flashy passing and scored goal after goal from the field."

"Pittsburgh used a figure-eight offense," Buddy Blair once said. "We had not seen this before and it hindered us in the first half. In the second half, we got our fast break going and just about ran them crazy."

In the days before Bob Pettit arrived on campus, Harry Rabenhorst said in 1951 that Wade was head and shoulders the best player on campus. "We've had some great boys here at LSU. We've had some great ones, but Sparky Wade was the most spectacular and most colorful. He was a showman and probably the greatest dribbler in basketball. Sparky came to delight the fans. He never came up short on that count."

"I'm not as great as they say I am," Sparky once said. "I'm just a little fellow – five-eight if I stretch – but you know, basketball is the silliest game in the world. You have 10 guys and only one basketball, and if I have the ball, who can beat me?"

In 1935, only one team could beat the Tigers and powerful Pittsburgh couldn't stop a second half onslaught that led to a special moment in LSU basketball: a chance to claim a national championship.

In 1994, the remaining living members of the team were honored and a banner lowered from the Maravich Center to forever honor the accomplishments of this great team in Tiger basketball history.

In 2009, the widow of Sparky Wade and her family took part in LSU basketball's 100th anniversary celebration as Wade was named one of the 16 members of the LSU All-Century team.

Final Four Legacy

Four NCAA Final Fours for LSU: 1953, 1981, 1986, 2006. All with different heroes and much different circumstances. LSU's first Final Four appearance came at the time when it wasn't a media event in the days before television. The second came at a time when the LSU program was at a zenith, winning 17-straight conference games. LSU's 1986 Final Four trip came when LSU fans least expected it, or even imagined it. LSU returned to the Final Four again in 2006, taking a conference championship season and moving through the tournament, upsetting the No. 1 team in the tournament and the country in the process. Here's a brief look at LSU's four NCAA Final Four appearances:

Record: 22-3, 13-0 in the SEC · Coach: Harry Rabenhorst

The NCAA Tournament was enlarged to a whopping 22 teams in 1953, adding four new conference winners and two more at-large entries. LSU, led by junior Bob Pettit, went through the conference undefeated in a year when Kentucky was barred from fielding a team, and advanced to the Final Four in Kansas City by downing Lebanon Valley (89-76) and Holy Cross (81-73). The Tigers were unable to sustain the momentum in the national semifinals, losing to Indiana, 80-67.

Record: 31-5, 17-1 in the SEC · Coach: Dale Brown

It has been over 30 years since LSU fans were "Silly in Philly" over LSU's trip to the Final Four. It was a year in which an LSU team, which featured Durand "Rudy" Macklin, Greg "Cookieman" Cook, Ethan Martin, Howard Carter, Leonard Mitchell and Willie Sims among others, would win 26 straight games, including the first 17 in the league to advance as high as No.2 in the nation. Coach Dale Brown got the draw he wanted in the tournament, a route that would take him to the Final Four through the Louisiana Superdome. With the majority of 30,000-plus fans on hand pulling for LSU, the Tigers beat Arkansas (72-56) and Wichita State (96-85) in the regional rounds to advance to the Final Four. But Macklin was hurt in the Wichita game and was less than 100 percent. Again Indiana would be the team to beat LSU in the national semifinals, 69-47.

Record: 26-12, 9-9 in the SEC · Coach: Dale Brown

A season that started 14-0, had a chickenpox scare in the middle, and finished the regular season with eight losses in the last 13 games, still had much promise to it at the end. The Tigers, coming off an SEC Championship the year before, still showed enough to earn a spot in the NCAA Tournament field of 64. LSU was seeded 11th, but would get to play its first two games in the then LSU Assembly Center. The Tigers first beat Purdue in double-overtime, then used an Anthony Wilson buzzer beater to down Memphis. From there, it was a win over Georgia Tech and then Ricky Blanton, Don Redden, Wilson and Derrick Taylor pulled off the impossible, beating Kentucky in the regional finals after the Wildcats had won three previous meetings earlier in the year. LSU was at that time the lowest seed ever to make the NCAA Final Four, a mark that stood until 2006.

Record: 27-9, 14-2 in the SEC · Coach: John Brady

The Tigers won the Southeastern Conference with a 14-2 record, extending an unbeaten string of SEC wins in the Maravich Assembly Center to 17 games dating back to March 2004. LSU was the fourth seed in the NCAA Tournament's Atlanta Regional and was sent to Jacksonville, Fla., to begin tournament play. After dispatching Iona in the first round, LSU's battle with Texas A&M would be the first of three-straight epic battles that LSU would face on the road to the Final Four. It would take a Darrel Mitchell three-pointer with less than five seconds to play to get LSU the Round of 16, with a 58-57 win over the Aggies. The Tigers advanced to the Atlanta Regional semifinals where LSU downed the tournament top seed and the nation's No. 1-ranked team, Duke, and then went on to knock off No. 9 Texas in overtime, 70-60, to bring LSU back to the Final Four for the first time in 20 years.

Before there was Dale Brown, there was Harry Rabenhorst. In an era when college basketball wasn't big news and when cable didn't send hundreds of games all across the country, Rabenhorst laid the foundation for those that would follow him in the LSU job.

Like Maravich with Pete, like Dale with Rudy, Chris and Shaq, Rabenhorst coached two of the legends of the game: Sparky Wade and Bob Pettit. Like Brown, he took his team to a Final Four in the days before anyone realized what a major event the NCAA Tournament was. But unlike any other LSU coach, Rabenhorst laid claim to a national championship, mythical though it may have been. It was a year to remember for Rabenhorst, but it was a long way from the end of his career.

The Baton Rouge native, however, came to LSU holding a record of a much different kind. He was a star athlete at Wake Forest in the years following World War I and holds the world record for the single longest punt of 110 yards.

After serving in the U.S. Army in World War I, Rabenhorst began his career in coaching in 1921 at Greensboro High School in Greensboro, N.C. After that, he moved to New Mexico Military Academy where he coached for three seasons before moving back to Baton Rouge and the start of a long and dedicated lifetime of service to LSU.

In any capacity he served, he showed the same gracious understanding of the individual and devotion to duty that have set him apart from the ordinary.

He was a walking encyclopedia of LSU athletics and could recall in a moment the big game, the big play and the individual star of almost every athletic success enjoyed by the Tigers during his tenure.

Few men alive in college athletics numbered among their close personal friends the great and near great personalities who dominated the athletic scene for much of the first 60 years of the 20th century. His list of associates reads like a "Who's Who" of American Collegiate Athletics, names that capture the imagination of sports fans and historians everywhere -- Knute Rockne, Amos Alonzo Stagg, Pop Warner, Fielding Yost, Wallace Wade, Adolph Rupp -- and many more.

Rabenhorst's career at LSU meant more than victories and championships. A popular and respected coach and administrator, he brought LSU distinction with his long and brilliant service and developed athletes who became outstanding students, and later outstanding citizens.

Harry Rabenhorst was a competitor. He was also a gentleman. He proved that you can be both and be successful.

When Coach Rabenhorst passed away in March, 1972, at the age of 73, then athletic director Carl Maddox said, "Coach Raby was revered and respected nationally by the many who came to know him in the world of intercollegiate athletics -- but more significant is the esteem and the love he earned from the men who played for him."

"I always enjoyed competing with him," said Adolph Rupp. "He was a great credit to the game. He developed some of LSU's outstanding players and teams."

He is still revered today by many and joined just the second class of administrators and coaches inducted into the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009.

Coach Raby was a man for all seasons and still to this day remains one of the league's all-time winningest basketball coaches. Those who played for him, loved him. Those who knew him, respected him. There's not much better can be said.

When he arrived from Washington State via Minot, N. D., there weren't that many basketball fans in the state of Louisiana who knew who Dale Brown was. When he retired after the 1996-97 season, you would have been hard pressed to find a college basketball fan in the country who didn't have some inkling about who Dale Brown was and what he stood for.

When Brown arrived in Baton Rouge in March, 1972, he arrived with a dream that was perceived by many who knew the LSU basketball program as impossible. The dream was to make basketball important in football-crazy Tiger country. When Brown was introduced as the Tiger coach, LSU fans were still remembering the Pete Maravich era. Final Fours? Rudy Macklin? Chris Jackson? Shaq? All a dream. In those years, fans had to be convinced to come to the new arena known as the LSU Assembly Center.

Brown traveled from one end of the state to the other telling all who would listen about the future of LSU basketball. Some thought him foolish. Others questioned his statements. But none who saw or heard him criticized his effort and his tireless energy.

His first LSU team shocked the basketball world by knocking off third-ranked Memphis State in Brown's home opener in December, 1972. The Hustlers, as they were dubbed, gave the competition fits all season long. They won 14 games, finished 9-9 in the SEC and drew praise from all around the country for their determination. For his achievements with a team picked last in the league, Brown was named SEC Coach of the Year, the first of four such honors he would receive.

Starting with the 1976-77 season, the Tigers increased their victory total ever year for the next six seasons. The streak was highlighted by a 31-5 record in 1980-81 (the most wins in a season in LSU history) and the first of Brown's two trips to the Final Four. For his success that season Brown was honored as the 1981 National Coach of the Year.

Even more impressive was his second trip to the Final Four in 1985-86 when his Tigers were the lowest seeded team ever to make it to the Final Four after knocking off teams seeded first, second and third in the region (the only team ever to accomplish that feat on the road to the Final Four).

The Tigers won four SEC titles under Brown and only Adolph Rupp and Joe B. Hall at Kentucky won more SEC titles. His 448-301 record with 238 wins in regular season SEC play, put him second behind only Rupp in wins in the league. He was only the third SEC coach to coach 25 years as a head coach in the league.

Brown was part of 38.5 percent of LSU's 1,164 total victories in the first 89 seasons of basketball. Also, no coach in LSU history coached more consecutive games -- 749.

In 1990, Brown was the winning coach, capturing the Gold Medal for the South in the Olympic Festival in Minneapolis.

Brown was born in 1935 in Minot, a small railroad town in the northwest corner of North Dakota. In high school, he was the leading scorer in both football and basketball at St. Leo's of Minot. As a senior, he was the state scoring leader in basketball with a state record scoring average. He also set a school record in the 440-yard dash.

Brown earned 12 letters in basketball, football and track at Minot State University, making him the school's only athlete to achieve that goal.

John Chaney of Temple called Brown, ". . . .one of the true statesmen of college basketball. His contributions to the game and society have impacted many. He is an outstanding coach and an outstanding person."

Legendary coach John Wooden of UCLA said: "I will always remember Dale for his enthusiasm. There are those who say he is a put-on -- they just can't believe that he can be what he professes. But I never questioned that. He amazed me because there is a lot more depth to the man. He was much more than a basketball coach."

At halftime of the Kentucky game in February 2004, athletics director Skip Bertman and the LSU basketball program honored Coach Brown with a banner in his honor to permantly hang from the rafters of the Maravich Asembly Center.

In March, 2012, the United States Basketball Writers Association at its annual breakfast at the NCAA Final Four weekend in New Orleans, honored Coach Brown and his two Final Four teams.

The honors have continued to come for Coach Brown as in September 2013, he was formally inducted under the coach/administrators category of the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame and in November 2014 he and star player Shaquille O'Neal were inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in Kansas City.

John Brady

John Brady's tenure of nearly 11 seasons as the LSU basketball coach can be looked at in many different ways. But his tenure is an important part of the history of the program as he was able to win division and league champions, develop players that captured top league honors on a regular basis and take his team to post-season play. In 2006, he joined Harry Rabenhorst and Dale Brown as the only LSU coaches to take teams to the NCAA Final Four.

Brady was able to take the LSU program and remake it a couple of times during his tenure to go to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2000 and to the pinnacle of college basketball in 2006, the school's first NCAA Final Four in 20 years. Along the way he won the school's first-ever division titles and won the first outright SEC title in 21 years.

Coach Brady arrived following in the unenviable position of taking over the program after Coach Dale Brown's 25 years. However, Brady arrived with a plan, and while his early teams were undermanned, undersized and underdogs, the team played hard and gave the best of teams problems. But it was the little things that kept them from getting many wins.

Brady's teams would win two SEC titles, three division crowns and at one point had six-consecutive winning seasons, the fourth longest streak of consecutive years with a positive overall record in the program's history.

In 2000, the Tigers advanced to the Sweet 16 as part of a 28-win season, the second-most wins in school history. In 2005, LSU captured the Western Division title and came back the next year for a special season Tiger fans will always remember.

LSU won 14-of-16 conference games in 2006 to win the title. The Tigers had success in the NCAA Tournament, defeating No. 1 Duke and No. 9 Texas to win the regional title comprised mainly with a lineup of homegrown athletes from the city and the state of Louisiana.

The win over Duke marked the second time that Brady's Tigers defeated a standing No. 1 team as the Tigers also defeated No. 1 Arizona, 66-65, in December 2002 at the Maravich Center, only the second time No. 1 had gone down in the building.

A major part of the success of the LSU program at that time was player development. John Brady coached the SEC Player of the Year three times (Stromile Swift in 2000, Brandon Bass in 2005 and Glen Davis in 2006). He had the SEC Freshman of the Year four times (Torris Bright in 2000, Brandon Bass in 2004, Glen Davis in 2005, Tyrus Thomas in 2006).

Brady, who ended his career as the third winningest and the third-longest tenured coach in Tiger history, came to LSU after five years at Samford as head coach. Prior to that he served successful stints at Mississippi State and UNO as an assistant coach.

After his LSU days, he coached for eight years at Arkansas State before retiring from coaching following the 2016 season with 402 career wins. He currently is the analyst for the LSU Sports Radio Network.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Statues

They were three of the greatest to ever play the game at LSU in completely different eras.

They were three of the greatest to ever play professionally in the Natonal Basketball Association in completely different eras.

But their outstanding play has been linked in so many ways including being named the NBA at 50 and NBA at 75 teams showcasing the great starts in the leagues first 50 and 75 year marks.

At LSU, not only do their names hang forever above the rafters of the Maravich Assembly Center honoring their careers, but the trio has statues honoring not only their college achievements, but their professional careers as well.

The three statues are located in the plaza on the north side of the Maravich Center. Shaquille O'Neal statue was dedicated and unveiled in September 2011, while the Pettit statue was unveiled in February 2016.

The latest was the statue honoring the building's namesake -- Pete Maravich -- which came in July 2022.

Pistol Pete Maravich, who dazzled crowds at the John M. Parker Ag Center (the infamous "Cow Palace") from 1968-70, had his likeness unveiled by his wife Jackie and sons Jaeson and Josh in ceremonies on a beautiful sun-splashed late afternoon.

The statue shows Pete at his best, with another perfect behind-the-back pass to a teammate for an easy bucket. The pose was chosen by Maravich's two sons.

Peter Press Maravich scored 3,667 points in his three seasons at a time when there was no three-point shot, no shot clock and despite not being able to play varsity as a freshman under then-NCAA rules. He finished with an amazing scoring average of 44.2 points a game, an average that would have been well over 50 points with a three-point shot.

He was considered to be one of the greatest creative offensive talents ever and one of the best ball handlers of all time.

Pete was the third pick of the 1970 NBA Draft by the Atlanta Hawks. In his 10 seasons, he played for the Hawks, New Orleans and Utah Jazz, and the Boston Celtics. He averaged 24.2 points and 5-plus assists in some 658 career games with four all-star game appearances.

In introducing the unveiling moment for the statue, emcee Dan Borne said, "But tonight, it is all about the man who wore 23 with the floppy socks and the shaggy hair. Both were of another time and place, but Pistol Pete's fabled game is as current as this season's box scores. Fifty-plus years later, he is and always will remain, timeless."

Pete's wife summed up her late husband in this way when she took the microphone:

"Over Pete's lifetime, many have described him as an entertainer, artist, showman or basketball wizard. Whatever the adjective used, they describe and represent the joy and excitement Pete brought to the game of basketball ..."

"He could truly manipulate the ball to do anything he wanted. His unassuming look, tall and skinny with floppy hair and socks gliding up the court only made him more intriguing to watch."

The first statue unveiling in the plaza was of Shaquille O'Neal in 2011 and was unveiled by the big man, his mom Lucille, then LSU Coach Trent Johnson and Shaq's college coach Dale Brown. Together they pulled the necessarily large white cloth that covered the 900-pound bronze statue that unveiled a young LSU player named O'Neal dunking a basketball.

O'Neal saluted the fans and invited all the former and the members of the 2011-12 LSU Basketball team to surround him as he made his remarks after the unveilling, admitting later to the media that he never imagined the statue would be that big.

O'Neal played at LSU from 1989-92 and in his three seasons was named National Player of the Year in 1992 and runnerup for Player of the Year in 1992. He also earned NBA MVP honors, making him the only student-athlete in LSU history to win National Player of the Year in college and then a professional MVP honor.

O'Neal played 19 NBA seasons before announcing his retirement in June of this season. He has joined TNT Sports as a studio analyst when the NBA resumes play.

"They sent me little sculptures of what it would look like so I thought it was one of those little things," he said.. "When that curtain came down it was like wow. They really did a good job. I'm honored and humbled. There are a lot of great players that came through this university – greater than me ... So I'm just honored that they chose me to build a statue of ... I think it's beautiful. It's fabulous."

In another sun-splashed winter day in the hours prior to an LSU basketball game in Feb. 2016, LSU and NBA icon Bob Pettit and his 10 grandchildren pulled the large tarp away to unveil his likeness in ceremonies in the plaza.

Pettit remains one of the greatest to play at LSU, leading the Tigers to the 1953 NCAA Final Four and dotting the records books with his name and accolades. He then helped lead St. Louis to an NBA title and while being named NBA MVP twice and a four-time winner of the NBA All-Star Game MVP honor.

He scored nearly 21,000 points in the league, averaging 26.4 points per game with just short of 13,000 rebounds (16.2 average).

After the unveiling he told the media about the statue: "I like it very much. I wish I had that many muscles and that much hair, but I thought it was a great job. I really appreciated it. It's just hard to realize at this time how significant that is in my life. I've had quite a few honors over the years, but I don't think there's really anything that compares to this. I'm very excited and very appreciative of all the people that were involved in this and in making it happen and particularly the LSU family."

LSU Athletic Hall of Fame, Louisiana Honors

Frank Brian speaks to crowd at 2013 LSU Athletic Hall of Fame banquet.

LSU Athletic Hall of Fame

The LSU Athletic Hall of Fame is one of the most prestigious athletic clubs that recognizes only the best and brightest of LSU athletes. All student-athletes in the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame must have received their degree at LSU to be eligible.

In 2007, a category was added to allow coaches and administrators into the LSU Hall of Fame. That allowed both coaches Harry Rabenhorst and Dale Brown and trainer Dr. Marty Broussard to enter the prestgious hall.

Listing includes the members of the Hall of Fame involved in LSU men's basketball:

Malcolm "Sparky" Wade -- Inducted in 1937
Joe Dean -- Inducted in 1953
Bob Pettit -- Inducted in 1954
Joe Bill Adcock -- Inducted in 1978
Bobby Lowther -- Inducted in 1978
Durand "Rudy" Macklin -- Inducted in 1990
Shaquille O'Neal -- Inducted in 2000
Dr. Martin J. Broussard (Athletic Trainer) -- Inducted in 2009
Harry Rabenhorst (Head Coach) -- Inducted in 2009
Frank Brian -- Inducted in 2013
Dale Brown (Head Coach) -- Inducted in 2013
Collis Temple, Jr. -- Inducted in 2017
Jim Hawthorne (Broadcaster) -- Inducted in 2023

Collis Temple, with his family behind him, accepts his LSU Athletic Hall of Fame honor at the 2017 awards banquet.

Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame

To be a member of the Louisiana Sports Writers Hall of Fame is one of the greatest honors that could be bestowed on an athlete from this state or who has performed a portion of his career in this state. Each year's class continues to add to the prestige of the growing list of Hall of Fame inductees. The Hall of Fame ceremonies are conducted each June in Natchitoches at the Natchitoches Events Center just a block from the new multi-million dollar home of the Hall of Fame that opened in June 2013.

A total of 18 men and women who participated in the LSU basketball program either as players or coaches or staff have been inducted in the Hall of Fame. In 2005, LSU's Durand "Rudy" Macklin, a member of the 1981 Final Four team and the No. 1 rebounder and No. 2 scorer in LSU men's history, along with late former LSU women's head coach Sue Gunter were inducted.

In 2009, the late Dr. Martin J. Broussard became the first athletic trainer ever inducted iinto the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame.

In 2013, LSU and NBA icon Shaquille O'Neal delighted a packed house for his induction ceremony.

Most recently, on her way later in the year to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, LSU star/now women's basketball assistant coach Seimone Augusttus was inducted in 2024.

Media Guidelines

2024-25 Basketball Season
Credential and Access Guidelines

LSU's goal is to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards.

Media must meet the following guidelines in order to be granted credentials. Only media that meet the criteria and have approved the SEC Media Policy through the request of credentials on the LSU media site at LSUsports.net/media will be allowed to move forward on the credential site to request credentials and consideration for access to LSU Athletic events. No credential requests by media will be accepted by either email or phone, but must go through the credential site at LSUsports.net/media.

The number of credentials issued is limited. A CREDENTIAL DOES NOT NECESSARILY GUARANTEE A SEAT IN THE MEDIA SECTION.

General

Each Bearer must be and hereby represents that he or she is acting on a specific assignment for an accredited media agency and has a legitimate working function in connection with the Event attended. The credential is not transferable and may be revoked at any time.

The rights and privileges granted to Bearer may be terminated if any term or condition for use of the Credential is breached. The unauthorized use of Credential subjects Bearer to ejection from Event.

Print

Daily newspapers are eligible to apply for credentials and access to media opportunities. The granting and number of credentials will be based on newspapers' circulation on a space available basis.

Membership in the Louisiana Press Association or membership in the Louisiana Sports Writers Association may be used in determining access to credentials. Weekly newspapers based on space will be limited to non-conference games if space exists.

Specialty publications that cover college basketball or sports in the host site of the two participating schools are eligible to be granted on a space available basis.

Student newspapers from the city of the two teams are able to apply for credentials on the basis of a maximum of two press row seats for dailies and one press row seat for weeklies.

Television

Television stations that have nightly news broadcasts that originate in the locale of the station that includes sports coverage are eligible to apply for credentials. All other stations will be filled on a space available basis.

Student television stations from the two participating schools are eligible to apply on a space available basis.

The Credential confers on a Bearer a limited non-exclusive and non-transferable license (with no right of sublicense) to use broadcast video feeds of the Event only for regularly scheduled television newscast aired only on television (but not on any form of television available or viewable on the internet, except for a single, non-archived only simulcast by Bearer) within the period expiring at midnight on the seventh day after the Event and NO video used for such purposes shall exceed three minutes. Bearer may not broadcast any video of game action that is broadcast live until the Event has been completed.

Radio

National and regional networks are eligible to apply for credentials.

Radio stations that employ a full-time sports director or regularly airs sports news or locally-produced talk shows are eligible for apply for credentials. No talk show may have more than one credential and the maximum credentials a station may receive for a game, based on space, is two.

Internet

Internet sites of the home and visiting school (as determined by the Media Relations or Sports Information Director) are eligible to apply for credentials.

LSU's policy is to issue credentials only to those organizations whose primary purpose is to gather news and disseminating it and for which other commercial activities are ancillary.

Other internet sites must meet each of the following guidelines in addition to meeting the above criteria to be eligible to apply for credentials and access as determined on a space available basis.

- Web site must be a legal corporate entity.
- Web site must provide daily coverage of LSU or the visiting team with its own full-time staff of reporters, photographers and equipment.
- Web site must travel to and cover a majority of away games and all major post-season events.
- Web site must be accredited by the home university as working media.
- Web sites that sponsor message boards, message centers or chat room as their primary function where people are allowed to post anonymous information will not be issued credentials.
- The maximum number of credentials that a web site may receive is two based on space available and the discretion of the media relations or sport information director.
- Sites that are instagram, tiktok, "X" only without a media component will not be credentialed.

Internet Use – Video and Audio

Upon execution of a separate agreement with terms and conditions governing the use thereof, Bearer will be afforded access to video and audio of broadcast Events for use on Bearer's official news website(s), at no premium or charge. Otherwise, except as specifically permitted herein (with respect to online, non-archived simulcasts), Bearer shall not post, place, distribute or make available video (or audio from broadcast feeds) of game action of any Event (including any Bearer Generated Video of game action of an Event) on or through the internet or any other new media distribution platform (i.e., any other platform other than print media or a form of television not available or viewable over the internet, except for non-archived simulcasts specifically permitted herein) including, without limitation, wireless handsets, podcasts, cell phones or PDAs.

Entrance

The media entrance to the Pete Maravich Assembly Center is through the Northeast Corridor of the Maravich Center. The press workroom is located in that corridor. Access to the press room is limited to those with working credentials. A pre-game meal will be served approximately 90 minutes before tipoff in the media room in the Northeast Corridor.

Parking

Media parking is located in lots near the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials.

Satellite Trucks

Any outlet using a satellite truck must request satellite truck parking and must have the truck in place at least two hours prior to tipoff. All production and uplink trucks should contact Bryan Paar, Director of the Maravich Center, 225-578-8205 regarding parking and Game Manager Director Drew Altavilla, 225-578-3999, regarding production truck power hookup.

Phone Lines

Those writers wishing personal phone lines at press row or in the press room should contact the AT&T Office in Baton Rouge (1-800-238-5501) with LSU Sports Information as the contact.

There are a minimum of four phone lines available for every game for writers in the press room.

Wireless Internet Access

Wireless Internet access is available in the press room and on press row of the Maravich Center. For information on how to access please ask LSU Basketball SID Kent Lowe.

Head Coach Matt McMahon

Coach McMahon will be available for phone and in-person interviews on most non-game weekdays during the season. Please coordinate all requests for personal interviews with Coach McMahon at least two days in advance through Kent Lowe in the LSU Athletic Communications Office at 225-578-1864.

Coach McMahon will, based on the game schedule, make comments at a media session in the Courtside Club media area one or two days prior to a game. The sessions will take place prior to the team's practice. On the road, Coach McMahon will generally not be available once the team leaves Baton Rouge.

Players

LSU players will be available in the media sessions at least once a week at a time to be announced. Special interviews should be requested 72 hours in advance through the LSU Sports Information Office.

Phone interviews will be handled on a case-by-case basis. NO players will be available for interviews on the road prior to the game.

The team apartments, locker room and team areas of the practice facility are off limits to media representatives at all times.

Postgame

LSU abides by Southeastern Conference policy regarding equal access to all members of the working media.

The LSU locker room is closed to all media after all games, home and away. Requested players will be brought to the Courtside Club media area for a group press conference after the 10-minute cooling off period. Coach Matt McMahon will come to the media room after conducting his post-game radio network interview. On the road, media members can visit with Coach McMahon outside the locker-room or in the home team's interview area if so requested.

Practices

Practices are closed to the media.

LSU Sports Radio Network

Radio Network History

The LSU Sports Radio Network, a division of LSU Sports Properties, brings Tiger basketball to LSU fans and alumni around the world. With three 100,000-watt FM stations and two clear-signal 50,000 watt AM stations, LSU Fighting Tiger Basketball is distributed by satellite throughout the South.

The LSU Sports Radio Network is anchored by flagship WDGL Eagle 98.1 FM in Baton Rouge.

Eagle 98.1 is also the home of football and baseball. WYPY Talk 107.3 FM serves as a flagship station for women's basketball and softball.

The LSU Sports Radio Network is one of the most progressive college radio networks in the country, utilizing an in-house radio studio to originate more than 250 live broadcasts of LSU football, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball annually.

In 2024, the Network moved into a modern communications center in the South Stadium Office annex, offering both audio and video capabilities for broadcasting.

In 2014, LSU began free streaming on-demand live game broadcasts and live video of certain non-game action like coaches' television shows, news conferences and special presentations on LSUsports.net.

In addition to live games, network programming includes a weekly live coaches' shows for football, men's and women's basketball, and baseball.

Chris Blair, LSU's Director of Radio and the Voice of the Tigers for football, men's basketball and baseball, will call his ninth basketball season for LSU.
